

The custom field settings now have a setting for "Default to Last Value". It is set to "No" for all existing custom fields that our customers use.