

This means you can easily show attendees that were part of an entertainment expense. We had a more complex process before, but this is simple and easy to use. You just edit an expense category under Setup > Company > Expenses and indicate that it should have the attendee list associated with it.