

You can now turn on or off notifications to a particular user. In addition you can now specify at the proxy level whether a proxy should receive notifications meant for the people they are proxying for.