

There is now a checkbox on our integration settings that means new users that appear after being added to NetSuite can automatically receive their login details from Nexonia.