

We now have the capability to prevent submissions if receipts are not attached and/or if a line item is above a certain amount. This is an extension to our policy violations capability.